

EU AND COMPETITION TIER 3

Benefiting from its experience in public law, the competition and regulatory department at SLCM | Serra Lopes, Cortes Martins & Associados brings together multi-disciplinary expertise to advise clients in a range of matters. The firm attracts instructions from clients operating in the media, telecoms, healthcare, agrobusiness and retail sectors, that seek assistance in antitrust investigations, private enforcement cases, merger control and competition litigation. Miguel Pena Machete is the key point of contact.

Practice head(s):

Miguel Pena Machete

Recommended lawyer(s):

Catarina Pinto Xavier

Testimonials:

'We have worked with SLCM on various competition matters. We want to highlight their international capabilities, their reactivity and their mastery of the subject.'

'The competition team is highly prepared and does not shy away from using economic evidence and economic experts, adding value to their work.'

'Miguel Pena Machete is a very good strategical advisor. He is able to correctly foresee the likely "make it or break it" points in the litigation phase of the proceedings and design an appropriate strategy.'

'The availability of the team throughout the process and the flexibility for all necessary interactions deserves to be highlighted.'

'Catarina Pinto Xavier and Miguel Machete stood out for their availability and flexibility, problem-solving capacity and accessibility.'

'Miguel Machete is an expert in competition law and has extensive experience in litigation in this field.'

'Miguel Machete stands out for his clarity of reasoning, availability, diligence and pragmatic advice.'

'Miguel Pena Machete has great knowledge of competition law. Catarina Pinto Xavier has the ability to understand the most important points from an economic point of view.'