

INSOLVENCY AND RESTRUCTURING TIER 2

SLCM | Serra Lopes, Cortes Martins & Associados' restructuring and insolvency group is experienced both in the monitoring of all phases of insolvency and PER, as well as extrajudicial agreements for credit restructuring. Key domestic financial institutions Novo Banco and Caixa Económica Montepio Geral have been sources of significant recent instructions for the team, that is jointly headed by experienced arbitrator Luis Miguel Cortes Martins and Maria Raquel Moreira. Moreira and associate Diana Simão Lourenço receive strong praise.

Leading Individuals:

Maria Raquel Moreira

Practice head(s):

Luis Miguel Cortes Martins; Maria Raquel Moreira

Rising stars:

Diana Simão Lourenço

Testimonials:

'The technical capacity and quality of the work is exceptional; the qualifier extends to the team, whether partners or associates; in addition to competence, they are empathetic lawyers who favor the working relationship both with the client and with the other party. Dedication to the profession and the client, exemplary ethical rigor. I've been working with SLCM for almost 10 years, quality standards persist over time.'

'The monitoring of digitization, on the one hand, and the new areas of law, on the other, have been notorious. The world changes, and so do legal issues. SLCM has been able to monitor this evolution.'

'I mainly highlight the partner Maria Raquel Moreira and the lawyer Diana Simão Lourenço. The availability, dedication and commitment are unparalleled in other offices, and it is always possible to count on your collaboration, even on tight deadlines!'

'Multidisciplinary of highly specialized know-how in the different legal aspects, which ensures complete and well-founded opinions; – responsiveness in very short timings;'

'The qualities / characteristics that stand out are know-how; professionalism; availability; efficiency. I highlight the following people: Maria Raquel Moreira; Diana Simão Lourenço.'

'It is an office with high technical competence in the various areas of litigation, always available, proactive and uncompromising in defending the client's interests. I would highlight Maria Raquel Moreira and Diana Lourenço.'

'Maria Raquel Moreira has extensive experience in advising clients from different sectors of activity, in matters of particular complexity, including corporate restructuring and litigation processes, among others.'

'Restructuring and Insolvency Team (Maria Raquel Moreira and Diana Simão Lourenço) of great individual and joint quality. Great responsiveness. Great dedication to each dossier, even if the process has lasted for 10 years, they know all the procedural steps taken. Great ability to argue and be "aggressive" as much as necessary when defending the client. Meeting deadlines. They go beyond just legal advice and intend to build together with the client the best legal strategy in order to achieve the greatest economic benefit for the business.'