

PUBLIC LAW TIER 4

SLCM | Serra Lopes, Cortes Martins & Associados attracts instructions from public entities and private companies operating in a range of regulated sectors, including energy, water and waste management, and transport. The team combines expertise in public procurement, contractual issues and administrative law, with extensive experience in dispute resolution. The latter is an area of focus for Miguel Pena Machete, who specialises in administrative litigation and arbitration. Catarina Pinto Xavier and Marisa Mirador are also key points of contact.

Practice head(s):

Miguel Pena Machete

Recommended lawyer(s):

Marisa Mirador
Catarina Pinto Xavier

Testimonials:

'The SLCM has excellent knowledge of public procurement and its associates provide highly efficient advice with very positive results. They are always attentive to the client's needs.'

'Catarina Pinto Xavier demonstrated in-depth knowledge and availability.'

'High level of technical knowledge of urban law; speed in the processing of requests; full availability in scheduling meetings.'

'I would particularly recommend Miguel Pena Machete for his permanent availability and dedication to the matters.'

'I would like to highlight Marisa Mirador and Catarina Pinto Xavier for their knowledge and high competence in the area of public procurement.'

'The SLCM Public Law team brings together the best lawyers in this area. All of them demonstrate enormous technical knowledge, turning it into the best and most practical advice, taking into account the needs of the business.'

'Catarina Pinto Xavier demonstrates a unique knowledge in public law. She is canny, thinks on her feet and is extremely competent in the way she conveys her messages, taking into account and adapting the discourse to different stakeholders (legal and non-legal).'

'Ability to contribute positively to the resolution of problems by offering a vision that supports the customers' decision process.'